Attorneys for Crystal Cox

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

PORTLAND DIVISION

Obsidian Finance Group, LLC, et al,

CASE NO. 3:11-cv-00057

Plaintiffs,

MOTION TO WITHDRAW

v.

Crystal Cox,

Defendant.

Pursuant to Local Rule 83-11, Attorney Benjamin Souede and Attorney Eugene Volokh (admitted pro hac vice) each hereby requests permission of the Court to withdraw as counsel for defendant Crystal Cox.

Defendant Cox has been advised of the instant motion and a copy of the instant motion is being served on her contemporaneously with its filing.

As stated in the Notice of Appearance filed in this matter (Docket Entry #100), the appearance of Attorney Souede was always been contemplated to be limited to “to the issues related to post-trial motions to set aside the verdict in this case, and/or motions requesting a new trial therein.” Those issues have now been fully resolved.

Attorney Volokh was admitted pro hac vice on the submitted Application for Special Admission Pro Hac Vice (Docket Entry 107), which included a Certification of Associated Local Counsel submitted by Attorney Souede. Pursuant to Local Rule 81-11, Attorney Souede does not object to the withdrawal of Attorney Volokh.

DATED: April 24, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Benjamin Souede
